

Feel You Babe

Your love is a therapy
Kind of a remedy
Forever in memory
Know it's the way
Baby it's true you
Shape my world
Heal my soul
Make me complete
Better than anything else
You're my lullaby
Put that verses on my mind
Beautify my whole world
I can feel you more
You're the best
For the rest of my life
You know you can be mine
See inside of your heart
No matter how you do it
Lean on me the way you want it
Whatever you got me there
Gotta love you honey
If ready to be with me
Never gonna stop
Keep you safe by my side
Until the journey ends.

My God & Goddess

Dedicated everything for me
Higher than the mountain Everest
Shed tears, sweat and blood
Lot more than the sea
How you both love me
It's so pure, I feel it
Worth it than others
Can be touched physically
By mentally, how far I can reach you
Feel your difficulties even in dreams
Hope to end up hardships
Try in my best to achieve all
You gave up your pleasure
The treasure what I got from you
A good education with good qualities
For the betterment of my life
Mom, you're my Goddess
Lights up my path
Dad, you're my God
Gives strengths to move forward
Don't know how you feel this
But, mean it to make it worth
Each and every single word I'm writing
Make a wish for happier lives.

Addiction

My heart is in the jail
Iron bars won't let me go
Though can see the light
Wanna keep my eyes close
I'm being a slacker
Destroyer, Ima terminator
Lose controller, disrupter
The raptor in my body makes me weaker
Thinker, damn terrible tinker
Tinkering all the bad out of bless
Ima farmer cultivate negativity upon you
Priority let the drugs to be closer
It's a monster higher than my desire
That desire makes me mature
Ritual, it's been going as usual
No survivals without injecting
Feels like up to the heaven but,
Burning out in the hell
Middle of the silence
Walk through cruelty of the dark
Uncertainties become awful
Life is just like Halloween
Mind blowing crazy things
Mess me up, hit me on the ground
My addiction, never see the reduction
Need more attention, prescriptions, restrictions
Guilty zones, reckless tones

Taking pills to get thrills as meals
Please take me out of this misery.

Beloved Sculpture

Not the fantasy
Made up with real
I'm so impressed
To see in real world
Out of mystery
History I know about
Not exactly the same
People told around me
Which I got from you
They never see it
Can't feel it except me
Even in dreams
How many sorcerers played with you
Making your innocent depressed?
Suffered times, weakened heart
Visible it in your blurred eyes
Dying in this hell cage
How to feel breeze
So harm than witch hazel
Think you're at your wits end
Just wipe out your tears

I'm holding you hardly
No one can ever ruin
Your enthralling performance
Whisper every secret you hide
I'm guarding, watching around sorely
No more enemies left
Only me and my blood.

-Dilanda Madusanka-

Illusion

Painful memories
Hit me thoroughly
Repeating the same tears
From dusk till dawn
Chasing after her
Telling I'm the best
Such a shame but,
Why don't I feel it that way?
Wet floors with slippery slopes
Moves normal, vibes abnormal
Wise to be away from you
Heart-talks folks give
No confident to confirm that Conducting conclusions critically
Slide by slide, side by side
See the reflection of your signs

Looking backwards
Try to loop the best moments of us
Pause in every micro segments
Ignite deep macro sympathies
Girl,
Why don't you feel this way too?
Hard to believe you covered it up
Cunning through my pure love.

God's Plan

Under the thousands of lights
Holding hands walking
Having lovely wishes
Humming, whispering
Baby, feel your
More than anything else
That's a pure perfection but,
Feels like a fairytale
Waited so long
Counting days & weeks
Making my mind to be patient
Silent pain in my heart
Need no clarifications
Wherever I go
Want to be with you

Whatever I see
I see your face everywhere cos,
You're a part of me now
Nothing can do to escape it
Both hearts are so bounded
Even if things make us to stay away
Nothing happens to both of our minds
Never change, never break
Never going to be reduced the love
As you're the one I need
You're the only girl I need
You got my heart already
Now no matter what happens to me
Give my whole love never get back
It's all God's plan.

Merry Christmas

Walk to the heaven
Through the candle light
Feeling so curious
Nothing's going wild
See the blinking star
In the sky far away
But not much far away
To see your perfect smiles

The God bless us for sure
In this charming Christmas day
What we got to do
Spread love for all
My wish is for you all
To be with better lives
Make yourself a Santa Claus
For each and every heart.

Politics

high tones go wild
Big mouths make us blind
Think they are smart
But visible it as greed
Give promises, new premises
Same lies in every times
Zombie zones, wicked smiles
Guns with drugs, delivery schedules
Killed people, raped women
Destroyed forests, inhabitants
Black art around them
Flames of curse
Losers with dirty hands
Hold little kids
Show genuine outside

Covering into white dresses
Fireworks along their paths
Bulletproof cars no road rules
Castles with bodyguards
Get kicks in virtue of our 'x'
Bending over in front of them
For the betterment of the country
What a sin we did in the last election
How does it feel today?
Time has been changed
To eradicate zombie politics
Even at this time
Think before we vote.

No Matter What

Though the distance makes us alone
My love for you never goes down
Though I miss your kisses day by day
Never gonna fade the taste you left on my lips
Though your parents don't allow to be with me physically
Don't mind we're always in heart to heart
Though heap of problems come towards us
Don't be afraid I'll head up to all panics
Though people spell out bad things around us
Let them burn time pass by

Though many girls come to hold my hands
You're the only one can hold my heart
Though we're in different religious ways
Doesn't matter to make love between us
Though people tried to separate us
Finally it became a crap useless in vain
Though your mother tongue isn't the same mine
Your smile is the best language to feel you more
Though we couldn't get selfies recently
Captured your movements by my heart wherever we've been through Though got no times to share gifts
We always share emotions to be last-long
You're the one need to be with bae
Know it all more than thousand times
The path is clear enough even has ditches
Let's walk together holding hands no matter what.

For You Ex

No regrets, no tears, no pains indeed
IDK but were idiocies
Implored me around you but,
Imperiled be badly
How much you impaired me
I was immobile for few days
You ignited flames in my heart

Felt like was in ICU
You were there my idee fixe
Promised to keep imperishable love but,
Imagine what you did icily for me
It was just like immolation
Did you see my infected heart?
Injected much drugs turning into normal
Used to be like an idler
Sitting on the floor idly looking at the sky
You gave me inferiority complex
Lot bigger than a blazing inferno
Illusion haunted inside of me
Now it is faded in another way
Though we were ill-assorted couple
It took times to indicate that
If and when we ever meet again
Hope you feel how important I am
Hey now, I am used to live without you
Threw those ignoble thoughts away
If you're able to see me now
Look how happy I am without you.

Exams

Exhausting but terrifying
Under some circumstances

Make us to think
Where we should be
Escaping from friend zones
Selfish with own notes
No sleep
Hitting all the books
Cutting through complexities
Find short notes
Not getting proper fuel to the body
Starving with hopes
Try to find even least joy
Procrastinating
The day in the exam
Jam all the facts
Scratching the head
Picking the nose
Remembering all the lecturers
Blessings for self-reputation.

F-R-I-E-N-D-S

Shivering cold nights
The warm is worth
It's a priceless prize
Just like friends
Journey of the life like
Frisky monkeys in the jungle

Move back and forth
Supporting each other
Circumstances of living ways
Need hands to hold
To alleviate sufferings
Fusion of wisdom
Drugs can heal pains
Whatever physical
Friends can halt pains
Whatever in heart
A remedy for reticent
As an entourage
Show precise directions
Assist through hurdles
Keep friendships
Better than being selfish
Here's the way to go
Only with good friends.

The Prostitute

Dark sky
Lights of the roadside
Silenced surrounds
Make my routine
People in hunger
Ready to hunt feelings

Removing genuine outfits
Inside this tiny room
Still 23
But do lot more than 23
They think I'm beautiful
But I'm dying inside
Lost all the family members since childhood
Except my little brother
Have to make money
To keep him alive
If the reality is
He has a cancer
Need much money
To cover up his cost of medicine
That's why I became a night girl
To save his life
I can't let him die
He is my whole world
I'm dreaming for a better future
Like other people do
To have a good family
Getting rid of this miserable life
My little brother, please pardon me
You don'
